

Travel Information to Aachen

Flights:

You can fly to Duesseldorf Airport (DUS) (preferred) or Frankfurt a. Main Airport (FRA).

Train:

Düsseldorf Flughafen (DUS) – Aachen Hbf

There is a direct local train connection from Duesseldorf Airport to Aachen main station (Hauptbahnhof = Hbf) every hour. It takes around 1,5 h.

IMPORTANT: If you are min. 2 - max. 5 people taking the same local train from Duesseldorf Airport to Aachen main station, please buy a “SchönerTag-Ticket” for 45 €. This is much cheaper than a single ticket (23€).

You can buy the “SchönerTag-Ticket” online in advance on the following website:

<https://www.bahn.de/p/view/angebot/regio/regionale-tickets/nrw/schoener-tag-ticket.shtml>

Frankfurt(M) Flughafen Fernbf – Aachen Hbf

There is a direct fast train connection (ICE) from Frankfurt a. Main airport to Aachen main station (Hauptbahnhof = Hbf), but only a few times per day. It takes around 1,5 h. Other train connections take 2-3 h.

In general, you can search for suitable trains and prices on the following website:

Taxi & Bus

Aachen main station to University’s Guesthouse Königshügel, Melatener Str. 31-35, 52074 Aachen

On Sunday July 8 there will be no bus to the guesthouse. Therefore, please take/share a Taxi! It will cost around 10 €.

Alternatively, you can take the train to “Aachen West” and walk from there around 10 min. uphill.

Walk from Aachen West to University’s Guesthouse and to the Bus stop “Turmstraße”:

On Friday July 13 you can take also the Bus 13A departing from the bus stop “Turmstraße”. It takes around 10 min. to the main station and leaves every 15 min. If you have a “Schönertag-Ticket” you can take the bus with this ticket. Otherwise the tickets are 1.60 € / person.
